Networking Protocol	Function
TCP (Transmission control Protocol)	Provides reliable error-free data transmission between devices
UDP (User Datagram Protocol)	Sends data quickly without checking for errors
IP (Internet Protocol)	Assigns addresses to devices and routes data packets across networks
HTTP (Hypertext Transfer Protocol)	Transfer web pages from web servers to browser
FTP (File Transfer Protocol	Transfers file between computers over a network
SFTP (Secure file Transfer Protocol	Securely transfers file using encryption
SMTP (Simple Mail Transfer protocol	Sends mail from one mail server to a device