Call of Duty: Mobile
Game Rules

1. General Conduct

It is essential for all Players to bear a sporting and fair attitude for an orderly and pleasant game. Breaches of this rule will lead to penalty points. The most important and common offences are listed below. However, the League administration may also assign penalties for other types of unsportsmanlike behavior (e.g. harassment) that are not included in the list:

- Players will refrain from the use of vulgar or provocative language during the entire competition. All rules of conduct also apply to chatrooms through the game console.
- Players are expected to compete in a professional manner. Throwing a match, halting play without cause, or showing a flagrant lack of effort will be construed as a violation of player conduct and will result in match penalties, forfeit, or disqualification from the tournament.
- Cheating does not need to be successful to qualify as a violation. Conspiring and attempts to cheat will be considered as full violations and will lead to automatic disqualification for all conspirators involved.
  Examples of cheating include, but aren't limited to:
  1. Ringer
  2. Account Sharing
  3. Extra-sensory perception (ESP) hacks
  4. Radar hacks
  5. Wall hacks
  6. Aim hacks
  7. Hitbox manipulation
  8. The usage of bugs and/or glitches to gain an advantage
  9. Screening or stream sniping

2. Teams / Player Requirement

- All players of the team must be of the same University and enrolled/resident students at the said University.
- A team must be composed of 5 starting players, a coach and 1 sub player (optional). Sub players must be included on the team registration.
- By registering, Teams acknowledge that all usage of photos, videos, and any form of recording during the tournament have been given legal consent by the players for media and marketing purposes.
- The act of registering for this tournament implies full acceptance of all terms, conditions, rules, and regulations stated, in its entirety.

3. Tournament Format

This tournament is to be played in a Round-robin format.

Tournament Schedules and Rules

a) Game Format: Team Match

b) The first team to reach the score limit will be declared the winner. If 'Surrender' is called by either team, it will be considered a concession to the other team. In the case of a dispute, the referee shall make the final decision.
c) The First Phase of the tournament will be an open qualifier with a best-of-3, round-robin format. Top 2 teams will proceed to the championship phase. (Highest Match Scores/Wins)

  - Player 4 = Unique Operator Skill 4
  - Player 5 = Unique Operator Skill 5

f) Weapon Class Roles

- Both teams will be given the ability to assign 2 weapon class roles from a pool of roles to each player on their team. Each team will state their weapon class roles per player at the start of a series to their opponents and tournament administration. The team that declared their operator skills second will declare their weapon class roles first. For the entire series, players may not equip any loadouts that include primary weapons not within their weapon class roles. Players may have any combination of weapon class roles given to them, but may not have two of the same role. These roles do not apply to secondary weapons or weapons picked up from dead players. Teams do not share the pool of available roles.

- There are 4 Weapon Class Roles.
  - Assault Rifles - Allowed to use the Assault Rifle weapon class
  - Sub-Machine Guns - Allowed to use the Sub-Machine Gun weapon class
  - Heavy - Allowed to use the Shotgun and Light-Machine Gun weapon classes
  - Marksman - Allowed to use the Sniper and Marksman Rifle weapon classes
- The pool for these roles is as follows
  - 3 ARs Roles, 3 SMGs Roles, 2 Heavy Roles, and 2 Marksman Roles
  - When teams state their roles to their opponent and tournament administration, it should look like the following example:
  - Player 1 - ARs / SMGs
  - Player 2 - ARs / Heavy
  - Player 3 - Heavy / SMGs
  - Player 4 - Marksman / ARs

Temporary Ban List:

- TBA

Emote

- All Emotes are restricted

If a team violates the ban list, they will be considered the loser for that game mode, and points will be awarded to the opposing team. If both teams violate the ban list, a re-match will be conducted immediately upon the Admin's instruction.

9. Pre-match Rules

Players need to CREATE their own lobby. As soon as the teams are matched up, players need to add the opponent and determine who will be creating the lobby.

The team captain is RESPONSIBLE to invite all team members into the designated private multiplayer lobby within 5 minutes.

10. In-game Rules

- Application Version: Call of Duty: Mobile (CODM)
- Players are prohibited from using any kind of emulation software or Tablet device. If any players are caught using the item stated above will be banned from entering any tournament from Garena or ESL.
- Spectators are prohibited to be in the lobby, except for tournament admins and coaches.
- If any player disconnects during a match, the game continues. The disconnected players are required to reconnect as soon as possible.
- In the case of a server crash, the admin will rehost the lobby and restart the match.

- Make sure the team is fully ready and prepared throughout the whole Tournament.

11. Results

Each player should be responsible for taking screenshots of each and every result of their match and in the event should any technical issues arise. Screenshots of the match should be uploaded to the match page within 15 mins after the game ends/after the match time span ended. If neither team uploads any screenshots/match media or tries to contact the admin team, a default win will be given to one of the teams randomly.

12. Admin Rights

Admin may overrule all rules based on the situation. The organizer's decision is final after the appeal process.

Protest Fee is 5,000.00 Pesos. (protest result will be posted within 24 - hours).

Only Coaches or team captain are allowed to communicate directly with the Tournament Manager if ever something is not right / bad game experience during the game. (Violation of player conduct and will result in match penalties, forfeit, or disqualification from the tournament.)
